A7 Understanding of Criminal Law

While answering a criminal law MCQ, you must remember the following protocols

FIRST SET

Protocols :

1. UK criminal law is not codified, that means it do not have coded book, so you will be answering your question on the base of principles of courts decisions.
2. Apply Actus Reus and Mens Rea to the situation, as without this crime cannot be established in any case.

3. Identify the parties ; such as victim, accused, police if present, prosecutor if in court, write all the character names on your notes paper (submit this with your answer sheets).
4. Identify the issue ; write it separately in bold in the notes paper.
5. Apply Actus Reus and Mens Rea to the action of the accused ad mention it before its name and write its outcome on the notes paper.
6. Note down the degree of injury sustained by the victim and mention the kind of offence against his name.
7. Now answer the question on the notes paper on the above mechanism and in the light of that ; choose one of the multiple answer.
8. You must also remember the procedures in criminal law to answer a technical question, for this purpose do revise key points in lectures provided to you.
